

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

The journal Slavic Studies is the scientific periodical that publishes original papers in the field of Slavic philology, theory of linguistics and literature, history of Slavic studies and related scientific areas, as well as scientific criticisms, chronicles and bibliographies.

The Editorial Board of Slavic Studies consists of eminent experts-Slavists from diverse Slavic and non-Slavic countries.

All contributions submitted to the journal Slavic Studies will be peer reviewed by at least two competent experts one of which will obligatory be external reviewer. The process of peer review is anonymous in both directions.

Papers that have already been published or are submitted for publishing in another publication cannot be accepted for publication in Slavic Studies.

The contribution that you are submitting for publication in the journal should have a clearly defined topic and precisely reasoned motivation of methods that are used in it. The claims that you state within it must be confirmed theoretically and empirically validated. The paper must represent an original scientific work, which can not in any way be considered plagiarism or autoplagiarism. The Editorial Board welcomes polemical papers that rely on convincing argument.

Slavic Studies publishes the results of research in all Slavic languages, as well as in English. The manuscript should be correct in terms of spelling, grammar and style. The authors should also pay attention to the following elements:

a) Titles of special publications (monographs, anthologies, journals, dictionaries, etc.) that are mentioned within the paper are to be printed in italics in the language and alphabet in which the cited publication was published, whether in the original or in translation.

b) Within the text in Serbian language, foreign names that are mentioned in the paper are to be transcribed according to the rules of the Orthography of Serbian language, and in the case when a foreign name is mentioned for the first time, its form in the original language should be given in parentheses, unless that particular name is widely known (e.g. Фердинанд де Сосир) or originally written as in Serbian language (e.g. Владимир Бондарко).

c) The author's surname is to be cited in parenthesis in its original form and alphabet, e.g. (Пипер 2015), (Апресян 1974), (Geeraerts 2006).

d) Citations from the works in foreign languages, depending on the function they may have, can be cited in the original language or in translation, but the authors must strictly follow one of the above ways of citation. If quotes are cited in the original language, the authors can give their own translation in the footnote.

Cited References and Sources Section

The list of cited references is given in a separate section entitled Literature.

In order for the electronic citation number to be precisely established in the sections Cited References and Sources it is necessary to provide transliteration in the Latin alphabet of the references that have not been cited in the Latin alphabet.

Transliteration in the Latin alphabet is given in square brackets immediately after the reference. Automatic transliteration is available at the following address: <https://www.transliteration.com/transliteration/en/russian/ala-lc/> (the example provided is for the Russian language; other languages can be found in the drop-down menu). References given in the Latin alphabet should not be transliterated.
